Dear Friends and Participants,

I am pleased to invite you to participate in the 11th Annual George Archer Stroke of Genius Pro-Am Tournament on Monday, October 15, 2018. Once again we return to The Peninsula Golf and Country Club in San Mateo, California. We will continue this year with an early start and promise to conclude our celebrations by late afternoon.

Our morning golf clinic will be something new. This year will feature former TOUR player and Hooked on Golf media star, John Abendroth and his cavalcade of PGA Professionals.

Thanks to your continued generosity, we have raised over $841,000 to promote literacy efforts and have developed close relationships with the exceptional literacy programs of both the Charles Armstrong School and the San Mateo Public Library. Funds generated to Charles Armstrong have helped to support their teacher's training program, a critical element in the overall success of the school. The San Mateo Public Library serves all of San Mateo County with diverse literacy programs. This year we plan to continue to support Aptos Middle School in San Francisco as well as other public schools that need our help.

Our goal is to expand our reach so that we can help tutor as many children as possible. Each one of you is helping us to do this and it is working. Because of our wonderful committee and the commitment from those of you who help in so many ways, the pain that George experienced will not be repeated in a child simply because it is difficult for them to understand the principles of reading and writing. Additional information regarding George's life, career, foundation, golf tournament and on-line donations can be found at:

www.thegeorgearcherfoundation.org.

Our daughters and I believe that George would be grateful to know that the revelation of his illiteracy would lead challenged youngsters to the wonderful and magical world of reading and writing.

Warmly,

Donna Archer
